

A manufacturer specializing in server room rack cabinets

Overview

Manufacturer of enterprise server cabinets, server racks & network cabinet solutions for data centers and IT infrastructure.

Key Takeaways

Leading manufacturers of server room rack cabinets include Enconnex, Lehmann IT, AZE Systems, SYSRACKS, and STURDX, offering customizable, high-quality solutions for data centers and IT infrastructure. Enconnex

Enconnex designs and manufactures a wide range of racks, cabinets, and enclosures, including their flagship InfiniRack, which is highly configurable to meet unique data center requirements. Their products are used by hyperscalers and enterprise technology companies, offering solutions for edge computing, device testing, and standard server room applications. Enconnex emphasizes innovation, customization, and problem-solving for IT administrators and data center operators .

Lehmann IT

Based in Germany, Lehmann IT has over 40 years of experience producing high-quality server and network cabinets. They specialize in 19-inch server racks, climate-controlled enclosures, IP54-certified industrial cabinets, and acoustic enclosures. All products are manufactured in Germany, ensuring precision, durability, and reliability. Lehmann IT also provides accessories and components for both standard and custom installations

AZE Systems

AZE Systems offers premium server racks, network cabinets, and enclosures for data centers, colocation facilities, and networking closets. Their products are designed for durability, flexibility, and efficiency, with options for floor-standing and wall-mounted racks. AZE provides customizable solutions to meet specific dimensions, features, and environmental requirements, supporting both small server rooms and large-scale data centers .

SYSRACKS

SYSRACKS provides a variety of 19-inch server racks and cabinets, including wall-mounted and floor-standing options. Their products are compatible with standard networking and server hardware and include complementary rackmount accessories. SYSRACKS emphasizes fast shipping and practical solutions for compact IT installations .

STURDX

STURDX is a global brand specializing in premium enclosures and rack solutions for network, telecom, and infrastructure projects. They focus on customization, engineering support, and high-performance products. STURDX serves customers in over 30 countries, offering scalable production, fast quotations, short lead times, and reliable logistics, particularly for the U.S. market .

Summary

These manufacturers provide a range of standard and customized server room rack cabinets, catering to diverse environments from traditional data centers to edge computing and industrial applications. When selecting a manufacturer, consider factors such as customization capabilities, build quality, climate control options, and global support to ensure the solution meets your specific IT infrastructure needs.
